CHOCLATIER 1978

Hershey Senior High School
Hershey, PA

The sparkling water
Gently trickles down the mountain side,
As the miracles of life
And the miracles found within Begin.

We are always growing, changing, and experiencing these miracles;

Just look around you.
It seems as though God
Took to his hands
a brush
and a pencil,
To color the earth
With the happiness of miracles, a kaleidoscope of seasons.

Autumn leaves of rustic colors
Hang wilted
on the drooped branches;
only to fall
one by one
To the frosted ground
Below.

Then snow falls
 softly to the ground,
As it blankets
 the world beneath
  In peace; Purifying that of yesterday
For a more beautiful tomorrow,
Our tomorrow.

And with the sunlight
  of spring
Comes the music of nature:
The melodies of the wind
Through the newly sprouted leaves
And the chirping
Of the first season robin.

It is with the memories of these seasons
That we reach for the miracle of summer-
The waves upon the beach,
And the early morning dew.

Then once again,
The shadows begin
to lengthen,
And we feel the chill
of the autumn wind,
As the path
in our life continues.

It is because of the miracles that we have encountered in our youth,
and the memories that we treasure,
that we take our growing experiences from our past seasons to build the rainbow of our future.

On Friday October 14th, Homecoming 77 was set and ready to go and promised to be "Moments To Remember." But due to inclement weather, the parade and football game were postponed until the next morning. Saturday proved to be a beautiful day with the crowning of Sara Sides and the Trojans overpowering the Patriots. The dinner/dance was held at Parkview Manor with Ms. McBride as the honored guest, and the entertainment provided by the group "Saturday." Every Wednesday morning was dedicated to the planning of the weekend festivities. With the aid of Ms. Fantino and Mr. Hartman, Sue Dobroski headed up the 13 chairmen committee.

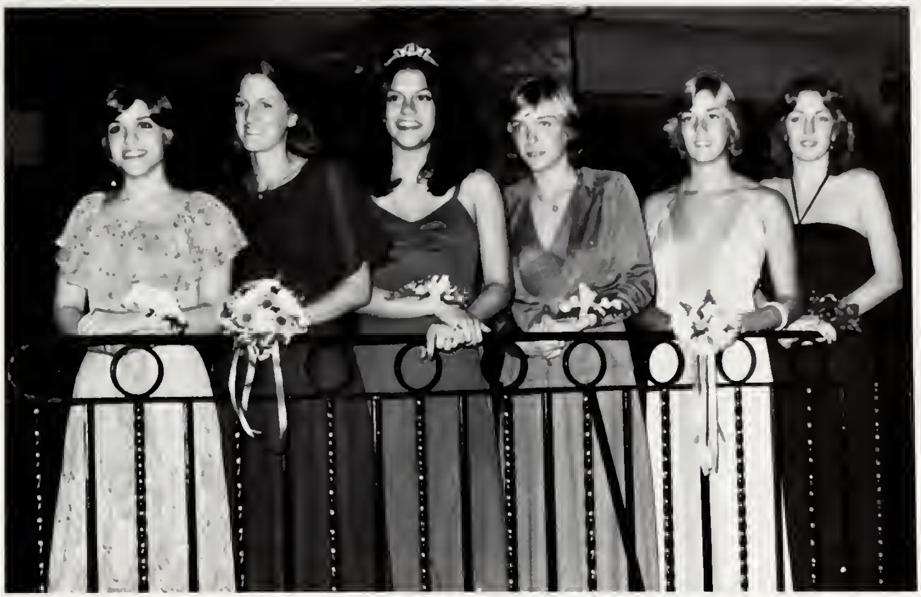
The staff awaits the crowning of the Homecoming queen at halftime.

Ms. McBride, the honored guest, addresses the Homecoming party.



Homecoming Court: Rosanne Salomone, Margi Long, Queen Sara Sides, Donna Curry, Jill Bitner, Sue Yarnall.

Troy Brunner and Robin Hasz enjoyed Homecoming festivities at the Parkview Manor.

Dancing to the group Saturday are Gina Mandes and Frank Ferguson.

H.E.A. Play: "Cheaper By The Dozen"

Under the direction of Michael Hamilton, the play "Cheaper by the Dozen" was presented in the junior high school auditorium on November 18th and 19th by members of the Hershey Educational Association. The proceeds from the two performances were used for two scholarships awarded by the H.E.A. to students planning on furthering their education.

Talent Show Enjoyed By Many

This year's talent show included a variety of acts: a skit by the varsity cheering squad to "You've Got A Friend," a pantomine act by Troy Brunner, a visit from another world by the coneheads, and Gary Chylak's version of "Desperado." Led by the two emcees, Faye Bretherick and Dennis Gipe, the large turnout enjoyed Hershey High's talent for 1977.

Gary Chylak's musical talent added to the overall success of the show.

Powder Puff Game

On Sunday, November 20th the first Powder-Puff game with the senior girls battling the junior girls was held. The kickoff at 2 p.m. found the seniors struggling to a 21-0 loss.

Lori McKillop arranged the half-time festivities—a take-off on Homecoming. From the court of seven men and their escorts, Chris Etchberger was crowned king by selecting the largest Powder-Puff.

92 Vacation In Florida

Three northern beauties, Sue, Janet and Laura, bask in the southern sunshine.

Warren prepares to capture a memory.

Karen and Lori show off their ultra-bright smiles to the cameraman.

Once again, Mr. Hartman spent Christmas vacation sharing his taste for the Florida sunshine with an eager group of students and faculty. The tourists left Hershey on December 26th and headed south for a week of non-stop entertainment. Highlights of the trip included visits to Sea World, Busch Gardens, and Disney World where New Year's Eve was celebrated at the "Hoop-Dee-Doo Review" in Fort Wilderness. "Toot-toot!"

THE SOUND OF MUSIC
Comes Alive

Magical as well as memorable moments were produced on the stage March 9th, 10th, and 11th, as Rogers and Hammerstein's THE SOUND OF MUSIC was performed by the senior high school.

Under the direction of Ronald E. Schafer, the Von Trapp family headed by Bonnie Roush and Ted Zimmerman sang their way to three standing ovations.

An all school district effort was put into the musical as the elementary, intermediate, junior high and senior high students were included in the cast. Between countless snow days and members of the cast and crew coming down with the Russian flu, it was a "miracle" the musical had its opening night!

But all the hard work and frustrations only proved the talents and many abilities of the students.

Director, Mr. Schafer, and the orchestra provided the sound of music.

Kim Sheeder, one of the many make-up artists applies her talent on Joe Soto.

Andrew Belser plays a game of blind-mans-bluff in the part as Max.

Backstage enthusiasm is displayed by Debbie Rice, Beth O'Brien and Vince Principe.

Judi Fuller as Sister Berthe sings "How do you solve a problem like Maria?"

Maria takes time to comfort Gretl with "The Lonely Goatherd."

Elsa tries to convince the Captain that he should have a party in her honor.

The Captain ponders marriage to Elsa in "How Can Love Survive?"

Maria shows her fear when she realizes that there really is love between them.

Excited students are caught up in conversation about their trip.

This year over Easter vacation, several students and teachers from Hershey Senior High went, with several other area schools, to the land of Don Quixote and El Cid, Spain. They visited such famous cities as Seville, Toledo, Torremollonos, Cordoba, and Madrid.

"Can you believe that we were actually thrown in jail in Italy?"

A small group of 9 students and 3 adults spent 8 days in early Spring exploring Italy. After arriving in Rome, the group traveled to Florence, Assisi, Venice, Milan, and Verona. The trip was a new experience for most of those involved, and was an educational adventure for all.

The refreshment committee spent much of the evening serving guests at the prom.

Friday evening, May 5, 1978, was the night for "Dancing in the Moonlight", the theme of this year's Sophomore-Junior Prom. The underclassmen and their guests danced to the music of the group "Back Door Frost" from 8:30-11:30.

One of the highlights of the decorations was an ice sculpture of the moon provided by Hotel Hershey.

The underclassmen sub-sale and class dues raised enough money to have the prom entirely free of charge.

"I'm not sure what it is either, but it's melting very artistically."

Young Team Gains Experience

This year's girls' cross country team consisted of seven underclassmen and one senior. Coaching this young team, Mr. Fricke tried to instill a winning spirit even when the competition was rough.

The team record was 2-4. Carla Ortenzio captured the school record of 12:41, as Tracey Querry ran a time of 12:46 to seize 18th place in the conference meet which was held at Gettysburg College. This team developed many fine runners and their talents will be used again next year.

Three players, Luke Drayer, Steve Back, and Mike Ercole, all of whom made the All-Metro team, made the C.A.C. all star team. Two other players, Mark Arndt and Carl Eyer, received honorable mentions.

At the Sports Award Banquet, Steve Back received the Coaches Award and Luke Drayer received the Marlin Balsbaugh Award. Coaches Rick Corrado, Ed Holwig, Bob May, Rick McCann, and Bob Watson were proud of the team's performance.

The Trojan girls' basketball team had an exciting but uneven season, compiling an impressive 11-5 conference record and playing to a second place C.A.C. finish. Directed by 6-year veteran Coach Linda Seygal and led by sophomore Robin Harmony, the high scorer for both the team and the conference, the team ran up a successful 12-7 overall record. Seniors Donna Hocker and Debbie Fratti, as well as juniors Shawn Ladda and Carla Ortenzio, were instrumental in leading the Trojan attack. The most valuable player for the team, as chosen by Coach Seygal, was Robin Harmony.

Coach Etchberger and assistant coach Mr. Lehman had a young, hard working team with third year veteran Bill DeLiberty as the only returning starter. Others on the starting line-up were seniors Jim Gingrich, receiver of the John T. Beck Award, Chris Etchberger, and juniors Rick Cramer and Brian Foust.

The fired-up Trojan team recaptured the Lion's Club Christmas Tournament with wins over Littlestown and Lower Dauphin. The team thanks the coaching staff.

J.V.'s Complete A Fine Season

The Hershey High junior varsity basketball team finished another fine year with a final record of fourteen wins and only eight losses. Veteran Coach Harold Passenger has coached basketball for nine years, five of which were at Hershey.

The J.V.'s proved to have good depth on the squad with eleven of the fifteen players starting at one time during the season. Five players: Wayne Gordon, Dave Seaman, Kevin Curtin, Pete Ortenzi and Scott Etchberger dressed with the varsity during the District 3 playoffs. Senior dinner June 5, 1978

Starting off this year's Senior Dinner was Devin Troyer, who gave the invocation. Dinner was served afterwards, consisting of prime rib. Some unusual entertainment was provided by hypnotist Prof. Richard Hayes. Other entertainment included a guitar solo by Debi Sikorsky, vocal selections by Andy Belser and Cristal Swartzbaugh, a senior slide show, and the annual Who's Who awards. The final event of the evening was Cristal Swartzbaugh's performance of the song she wrote and dedicated to the Class of 1978.

"For we all know that a friend is forever . . ."

"I don't suppose they let you out very often."

The hypnotic subjects enjoy the funniest movie they've ever seen.

Mild-mannered Debbie Rice sees the naked truth.

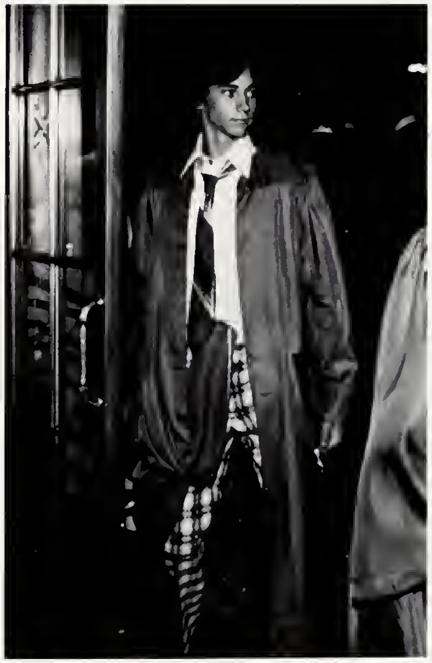
Music for the occasion was provided by the Hershey Senior High School Orchestra and Chorus, both of which were directed by Ronald E. Schafer.

The seniors sing "Come Thou Almighty King" after the invocation.



"I think I can slip away from here before anyone notices I'm gone."

Mr. Bomboy leads the anxious graduates into the theater for the service.

To the Class of 1978:

A FRIEND IS FOREVER

by Cristal Swartzbaugh

The time is drawing near,
For us to leave each other,
But we all know in our hearts
We will not fear.
Though the world is big and
sometimes is so cold,
It is warmer with a friend
your hand to hold.

Our friends from Hershey High,
Will in our hearts be always,
The dearest friends we ever knew
in many small ways,
And all our friends no matter how small or how great,
Will bring back memories of the Class of '78.

For we all know that a friend
is forever,
No matter how close or how far apart you've grown,
Yes, a good friend would not leave you, oh no never,
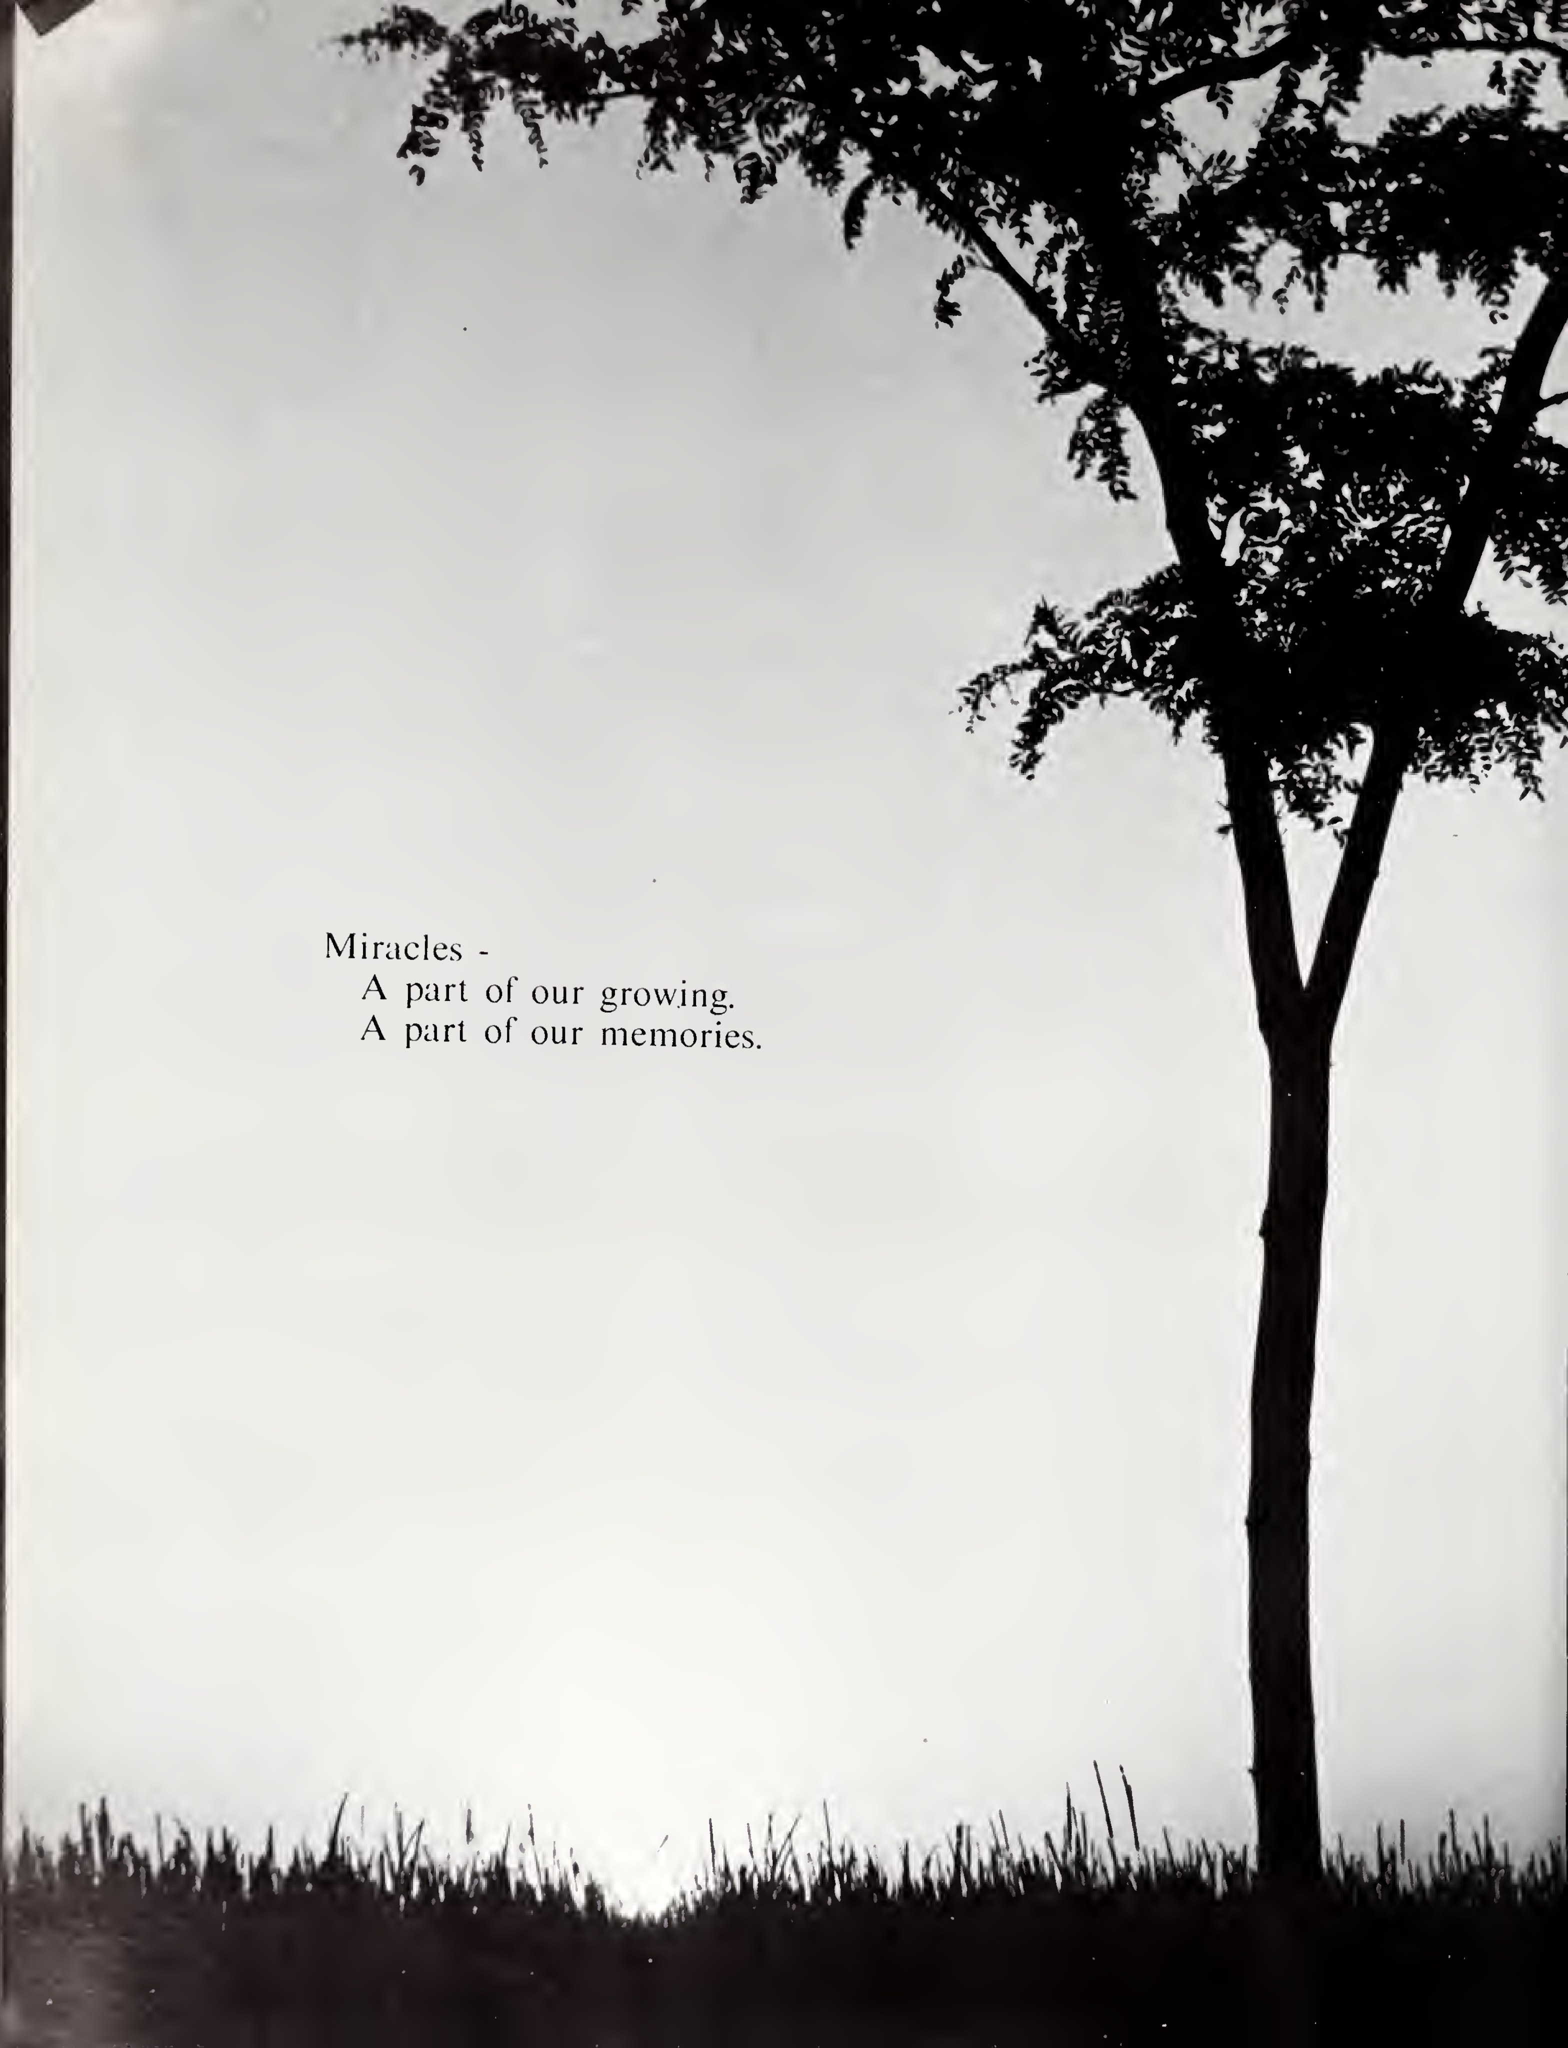
'Cause they know a true friend
really is forever.



Miracles -
  A part of our growing.
  A part of our memories.
